3. The first goal of the group was Wonsan, enroute to which they saw numerous bodies of both white and colored American soldiers. One of the members of the party stated that they appeared to be prisoners of war killed by North Korean troops when they were forced to retreat hurriedly. The United Nations landing at Wonsan, however, caused the group to change their route to Kilchu (129-19, 40-57) (EA 7033), where they saw large Chinese Communist troop concentrations and heavy weapons. The party continued on foot through Kapsan (128-17, 41-05) (EA 4040), Manggye (126-36, 40-58) (EA 9837), and Ch'angsoang (126-19, 40-35) (EA 9802), where the person PAK referred to as KIM Il-song left the group, after a conference at an army headquarters. 50X1-HUM
